This represents the recurring earnings of the media, property and other businesses.

^ Computed based on recurring earnings.

These dividends are tax-exempt. The proposed final dividend of 13 cents per share, comprising a normal dividend of 8 cents per share and a special dividend of 5 cents per share, is subject to approval by shareholders at the Annual General Meeting on December 1, 2015.
Chairman’s Statement

Lee Boon Yang
Chairman
SPH managed to turn in a creditable performance in Financial Year 2014/2015 with a net profit of $321.7 million.

The past financial year witnessed considerable global market uncertainty and currency volatility. The Greek crisis, coupled with China’s economic slowdown, impacted the world economy and Singapore too. SPH’s performance was affected by these wider economic conditions.

Despite these unfavourable conditions, SPH managed to turn in a creditable performance in Financial Year 2014/2015 with a net profit of $321.7 million. This represents a 20.4 per cent decrease compared to the last financial year. But this was mainly due to a lower fair value gain on investment properties and the one-off gain in the previous year from a partial divestment.

At the operating level, the Group performed respectably. Group recurring earnings of $353.5 million was higher by $4.5 million.

Revenue from the Media business was $902.5 million, a $60.9 million or 6.3 per cent decline from last year. This was attributable to declines in both advertising revenue ($53.7 million or 7.4 per cent) and circulation revenue ($10.1 million or 5.4 per cent).

The lower contribution from its Media business was cushioned by higher property revenue. The consistent efforts we have made over the years to diversify the Group’s operations have paid dividends. We intend to continue to identify and evaluate growth opportunities and to pursue those that show good potential.

To reward our loyal shareholders, the Board has proposed a dividend of 13 cents per share, comprising a Normal Dividend of 8 cents per share and a Special Dividend of 5 cents per share in respect of the financial year ended 31 August 2015. We had earlier declared and paid an interim dividend of 7 cents per share.

FY2015 was also a special year as SPH celebrated Singapore’s golden jubilee with a variety of events to engage the public. These included the Sing50 concert by The Straits Times and The Business Times, as well as the SG50 Sing-Along organised by our Chinese Media group. The Straits Times and Zaobao.com also celebrated their 170th and 20th anniversaries respectively.

Enhancing our Core Media Products
We reorganised our newspaper divisions and transformed them into integrated operations, producing both print and digital content across all platforms and encompassing adjacent businesses. The renamed English/Malay/Tamil Media group, comprises not only the print and digital operations of The Straits Times, The Business Times, The New Paper, Berita Harian, Tamil Murasu and My Paper (English section), but also several media-related subsidiaries. These include book subsidiary The Straits Times Press, the two English stations of SPH Radio (Kiss92 and ONE FM 91.3), financial data company ShareInvestor, and SPH Data Services which commercialises the Straits Times Index.
Chairman’s Statement

The Chinese Media group now incorporates Focus Publishing, which publishes a range of books and magazines, and SPH Radio’s Chinese station UFM100.3. This is in addition to its three Chinese newspapers - Lianhe Zaobao, Lianhe Wanbao and Shin Min Daily News, together with four student weeklies, ZbBz Newsgazine and My Paper (Chinese section).

The consolidation of our core media products and media-related subsidiaries promotes synergy and facilitates growth of our media adjacencies. All our newsrooms are now on the lookout for new lines of business without impacting negatively on their core business. This is particularly important in today’s dynamic and evolving media landscape so that we remain relevant to all our stakeholders.

Newspapers

SPH’s total newspaper circulation, covering both print and digital editions, averaged 1,113,879 copies per day, a year-on-year increase of 4.3 per cent. This was achieved by reaching out to more readers on their mobile devices while continuing to excel in print. The total daily average circulation (print and digital) of The Straits Times and The Sunday Times registered year-on-year growth of 4.9 per cent to 481,700. Lianhe Zaobao achieved year-on-year increase of 2.5 per cent to 187,900 total daily average circulation.

As part of our continuous efforts to enhance our products and engage our readers, The Straits Times and The Business Times underwent major revamps. The digital apps and websites of both publications were refreshed to provide a faster, sharper and more stable user experience. More advertising opportunities are also available for advertisers across platforms. A new metered-paywall was introduced to extend The Straits Times’ reach to non-subscribers by giving them the opportunity to read a limited number of articles each month.

Magazines

SPH Magazines has established itself as the Publisher of Choice with its sterling editorial content and award-winning designs over the years. Ninety of our magazines have launched digital editions, and this will continue to complement our stable of more than 100 titles of print offerings spanning a wide range of interests and genres. We continue to hold a leading position in magazine publishing in Asia with presence in Malaysia, Hong Kong, China, India, Indonesia, Thailand, the Philippines and Vietnam.

Focus Publishing, which publishes U-Weekly and Health No. 1, is also expanding with new special interest Chinese magazine titles such as UW Travel & Leisure magazine and Fabulous U.

Digital Operations and Investments

The Group continued to make headway in the digital space. Our Digital Division achieved good growth in digital revenues from both advertising and content marketing as well as digital subscriptions. In May 2015, we signed a multi-year partnership with the world’s largest content discovery platform Outbrain. By capitalising on Outbrain’s data analytics, automation and personalisation technology, we are able to increase user engagement and revenue optimisation.

The Straits Times, Lianhe Zaobao, Lianhe Wanbao, together with news aggregator website AsiaOne and bilingual interactive web portal omy.sg, developed and launched Apple Watch applications. These apps put us at the forefront of the latest innovations and help our readers access the latest news on the go.

SPH invested in property analytics company, StreetSine, in November 2014. By merging its operations with STProperty, we offer consumers and real estate professionals a one-stop shop for all information around property-related transactions, empowering them to make better decisions.

We also invested in Qoo10, the number one ranked e-commerce website in Singapore. This will enhance our portfolio of digital assets and open up opportunities for future marketing collaborations. With the region’s e-commerce market poised to grow, this investment puts us in a good position to tap on the industry’s growth and be an active player in this e-commerce space.

As part of SPH’s long term strategy to invest in innovative digital media companies which have synergies with our existing businesses, SPH Media Fund collaborated with Plug and Play and Infocomm Investments, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Infocomm Development Authority (IDA) of Singapore, to launch an accelerator programme in April 2015. Called SPH Plug and Play, the programme will identify young companies with potential and nurture them into strong and sustainable businesses across media sectors ranging from advertising, e-commerce, marketplaces, mobile, news and content distribution to public relations.

Beyond Singapore, we continued to strengthen our regional presence in online marketplaces. In November 2014, 701Search, which operates the online classifieds companies Mudah.my (Malaysia) and Chotot.vn (Vietnam), partnered Naspers Limited, a broad-based multinational internet and media group specialising in e-commerce, pay-television and print media, to develop the online... classified platforms in Indonesia and Thailand. This is in addition to our earlier investments with Schibsted and Telenor, resulting in a four-way partnership that will bring substantial benefits to all parties.

Radio
SPH Radio continued to grow from strength to strength. Kiss92, Singapore’s only radio station targeting female listeners, achieved the highest growth in cumulative listenership among English radio stations in the latest Nielsen ratings. ONE FM 91.3 was also revamped focusing on male listeners over 30 years of age. Besides the latest songs, the station also offers up-to-date Sports and Men’s lifestyle news. Our Chinese language station, UFM100.3, remains a popular choice for working professionals aged between 35 and 49 years.

Diversifying our Businesses
Our efforts to diversify our businesses have made good progress. On the property front, our third property offering, The Seletar Mall, opened its doors to the public in November last year. SPH REIT, which comprises Paragon, our premier upscale retail mall and medical suite/office property located in the heart of Orchard Road, and The Clementi Mall, a suburban mall in Clementi, continued to perform well with 100 per cent occupied tenancy.

Sphere Exhibits, SPH’s events and exhibitions arm, organised more than 30 exhibitions and conferences in Singapore, Malaysia, Myanmar and the Philippines in the past year. Sphere Conferences, which was set up to boost its presence in the local and regional MICE business, also made its foray into Sri Lanka and Indonesia by launching the Hospitality Investment Conference Indian Ocean and Hospitality Investment Conference Indonesia respectively.

Our Out-of-Home media advertising has continued to grow its product line and secured marketing rights to new advertising locations in the Central Business District and its fringes.

Awards and Accolades
As the leading media organisation in Asia, SPH maintained its record of winning multiple accolades in various fields. The Straits Times, Lianhe Zaobao, The New Paper and “See The Big Picture” campaign, won a total of seven awards at the Asian Media Awards in April 2015. The Awards honour recipients with the highest publishing standards in the fields of newspaper and magazine design, infographics, printing, editorial content, marketing, community service and photojournalism.

Among them, the “See the Big Picture” campaign, which was organised in conjunction with SPH’s 30th anniversary celebrations last year and featured autistic savant Stephen Wiltshire’s “live” drawing at Paragon, garnered 14 regional and international awards, including for Best Brand Awareness, Best Consumer Event and Best in Community Service.

SPH Magazines also won a total of 16 awards at the Media Publishers Association Singapore (MPAS) Awards. Of these, eight titles received top honours in their respective categories.

Corporate Social Responsibility
As a responsible corporate citizen, we have championed a growing diversity of programmes and initiatives to give back to society. SPH and SPH Foundation were honoured with the Corporate Platinum Award by the Community Chest for the sixth consecutive year. SPH also received the Patron of the Arts and a special SG50 Arts Patron Award from the National Arts Council for our long-standing support of local arts.

We are heartened that according to an Image Perception survey done by our research team at the end of 2014, 91 per cent of over 1,000 respondents were aware of SPH’s active corporate social responsibility efforts. We will continue to ensure long term shareholder value by being a good corporate citizen.

For the fourth consecutive year, we have also included sustainability reporting into this annual report. We are constantly looking for ways to reduce the negative impact on the environment by lowering our carbon emissions and improving energy efficiency in our daily operations.

A Special Word of Thanks
Our team of dedicated staff have worked tirelessly to achieve excellence. I want to thank them for their commitment and dedication. We continue to make every effort to recruit and develop our talents to their fullest potential as human capital remains our greatest asset.

On behalf of the directors, I would like to thank our management, staff, business associates, unions, investors and all other stakeholders for their continuous belief in, and support to, the Company.

We will continue to demonstrate adaptability and resilience, and pursue opportunities that position the Group for sustainable growth and value creation. I am confident that with the continued support of all our stakeholders, SPH can overcome obstacles that come our way as we continue to strive for organisational and business excellence.

CEO’s Overview of Group Operations

Chan Heng Loon, Alan
Chief Executive Officer
At the operating level, group recurring earnings of $353.5 million was $4.5 million or 1.3 per cent better than FY2014. This was a creditable achievement.

While total revenue of $1,204.7 million was $26.4 million or 2.1 per cent lower than FY2014, total operating expenditure declined by a larger $30.9 million or 3.5 per cent year-on-year due to effective cost management.

2015 has been a special year for Singapore as we celebrated the Golden Jubilee of the nation’s independence. We also mourned the passing of our founding Prime Minister Lee Kuan Yew on 23 March.

It has also been a year marred by adverse global events - economic slowdown, political uncertainty, terrorism and military conflicts - all of which contributed to the challenges confronting the media industry.

The Group’s net profit attributable to shareholders was $321.7 million, down $82.6 million or 20.4 per cent compared to FY2014. But this was mainly due to a lower fair value gain on investment properties, and the one-off gain in the previous year from a partial divestment.

At the operating level, group recurring earnings of $353.5 million was $4.5 million or 1.3 per cent better than FY2014. This was a creditable achievement.

While total revenue of $1,204.7 million was $26.4 million or 2.1 per cent lower than FY2014, total operating expenditure declined by a larger $30.9 million or 3.5 per cent year-on-year due to effective cost management.

Revenue for the core Media business continued to come under pressure. It was lower by $60.9 million or 6.3 per cent compared to the previous year, primarily due to a $53.7 million or 7.4 per cent fall in advertisement revenue.

Our diversification into the Property segment since we bought Paragon in 1997 has yielded good results. Property revenue surged by $25.8 million or 12.6 per cent boosted by a maiden contribution from The Seletar Mall and higher rental income from Paragon and The Clementi Mall.

Revenue from the Group’s other businesses fell $3.0 million or 6.4 per cent against FY2014, as revenue for the exhibitions business was affected by timing differences in show dates.
CEO’s Overview of Group Operations

Newspapers
Our two newspaper divisions were reorganised and renamed from 1 January 2015 to reflect the transformation of our newsrooms into integrated (print plus digital) operations and to promote synergy with our media-related subsidiaries.

The English & Malay Newspapers Division was renamed English/Malay/Tamil Media group (EMTMG) while the Chinese Newspapers Division was renamed the Chinese Media group (CMG).

The Straits Times (ST), SPH’s English-language flagship daily founded in 1845, celebrated its 170th anniversary. It remained the best-read publication in Singapore with a combined print and digital readership of 1.34 million, based on the Nielsen Media Index Report 2014. This translates to a penetration of 32.4 per cent of Singapore’s multilingual population aged 15 and older.

Readership for the paper’s digital editions grew by 76 per cent compared to the same period last year. This more than offset a 2.7 percentage point drop in its print readership.

On 1 July, ST launched a major revamp of its products across all its platforms, as part of its anniversary celebrations. It also moved to a metered paywall, which gives non-subscribers a limited monthly offering of free articles to read in full and to share on social media.

ST expanded its digital offerings, adding a new evening daily email newsletter and expanding the number of platforms to include Instagram, Whatsapp and the Apple Watch, on top of its Facebook, Twitter and Pinterest offerings. More e-books were launched for ST readers as part of its Star (ST Appreciates Readers) app.

There were also many events to engage ST’s readers, such as a multimedia exhibition at the ArtScience Museum in Marina Bay Sands, entitled “Singapore STories: Then, Now, Tomorrow” and a concert by the Singapore Symphony Orchestra at the Singapore Botanic Gardens, under the SPH Gift of Music series.

On 7 August, the Sports Hub attracted an audience of 42,000 people for the Sing50 Concert extravaganza – a two-and-a-half hour pop concert jointly organised by ST and The Business Times that brought together home-grown and international stars and featured songs from different genres and communities.

IN, ST’s weekly publication for secondary school students, sold 1.96 million copies to 70 schools, compared with 1.90 million copies last year, a 3 per cent increase.

Little Red Dot (LRD), for primary school pupils, sold 1.49 million copies to 124 schools. In addition, there was a special Jubilee edition which netted 199,000 copies for IN and 100,000 copies for LRD.

In a year of market volatility, The Business Times (BT) maintained its total print plus digital circulation at 47,700. In October 2014, BT relaunched its print and digital platforms, with a responsive website, complemented by improved apps. BT now caters to an increasingly mobile readership and has boosted the value of its All-in-One subscription bundle.

BT continued to champion business excellence with its well-established awards. BT also co-hosted the 10th ChildAid Concert with ST in December 2014. It raised a record $2.33 million for the BT Budding Artists Fund and ST School Pocket Money Fund.

The New Paper (TNP) revamped its Sunday edition in November 2014, adding new sections. TNP affirmed its position as the number 1 sports newspaper by securing a partnership with Sports Singapore to become the official paper of the SEA Games which returned to Singapore in 2015 after a 22-year long hiatus. TNP was distributed at all event venues and hotels where athletes and officials stayed.

Berita Harian (BH), the Group’s Malay-language newspaper, implemented several initiatives to streamline its operations and develop new revenue streams. In July 2015, the newspaper launched a new version of its mobile apps and e-newsletter. The team also reached out to pre-school children through its monthly bilingual magazine called Cilik Cerdik/Smart Kids. The newspaper successfully organised a futsal tournament in June 2015 which attracted overwhelming response from participants and sponsors.

BH honoured excellence in the community through its Achiever of the Year award and Inspiring Young Achiever Award. This year, in conjunction with SG50, it presented Pioneer Achiever Awards to three pioneer generation achievers.

Tamil Murasu (TM) celebrated its 80th anniversary on 6 July 2015 with record growth in advertising revenue and profit. It supported a play called “Murasu”, based on the life of its founder G. Sarangapany, which was well-received by the Indian community. TM and tablal, the weekly English-language freesheet for the Indian diaspora, organised the fourth Singapore Indian International Shopping Festival at Suntec City in September 2014 which coincided with the tablal Community Champion award.

Our flagship Chinese-language daily Lianhe Zaobao (ZB) launched its latest new website, “Z-Politics” (早报政谈), in August 2015 dedicated to the coverage of local political news. This followed the launch of its Property website, “Z-Property” (早房) which made its debut in May 2015, and its lifestyle website, “Z-Style”, launched in December 2014.

The online portal, Zaobao.com, celebrated its 20th anniversary in 2015. To commemorate the occasion, it held a series of initiatives to promote engagement with its users across platforms. This culminated in gala dinners organised in Singapore and Beijing.

On the social media front, ZB grew its presence in Facebook and WeChat. Apart from “Zaobao Online” (联合早报网), it launched six informative WeChat channels in February 2015. These six WeChat channels provide readers’ access to lifestyle information relevant to their needs covering travel, education and finance, among others.

ZB started a new online TV news programme “ZB Keywords” (关键词) in November 2014. It is a 3-minute news programme where headline news of the day is summed up in two to three keywords in Chinese. ZB was also the first Chinese newspaper in Asia to create and launch an app for the Apple Watch. The new app, which debuted in July 2015, allows Apple Watch users to access breaking news from ZB.

CMG and the People’s Association jointly organised the SG50 Sing-Along to commemorate Singapore’s Golden Jubilee, graced by Prime Minister Lee Hsien Loong. It celebrated the spirit of Singapore through a collective memory of popular local songs from the 1950s till now.

It also produced an 8-episode Chinese talk show programme entitled “Ministerial Coffee Talk” that was aired on SPH media platforms including radio and online as well as on StarHub TV in August 2015. The series served as a prelude to the General Elections and was well-received.

ZB’s student papers – zbComma, Thumbs Up, Thumbs Up Junior, Thumbs Up Little Junior – organised a broad range of activities to strengthen engagement with students, parents and teachers. New activities introduced this year included the Chinese Nursery Rhyme Writing Competition, a Chinese Preschool Teachers’ Seminar and a Student Workshop on Chinese Culture for P2 to P6 students. It also published a Chinese “O” Level Oral Examination guidebook which was well-received by students and teachers.

Lianhe Wanbao (WB) launched a travelling pictorial exhibition “Memory in Prints: Lee Kuan Yew” featuring photos of the seven-day state funeral of founding Prime Minister Lee Kuan Yew on 1 August 2015. In conjunction with the exhibition, WB published a commemorative booklet, “Those Seven Days: Lee Kuan Yew and Us”, which sold over 120,000 copies.

Since the inception of the “Reading with the Elderly” programme a year ago, ZB and WB extended their community outreach to more locations. At the weekly gatherings, journalists or trained volunteers, including teachers from CHIJ St Nicholas Girls’ School, presented senior citizens with news stories from the Chinese newspapers while explaining their significance.

In conjunction with the exhibition, WB published a commemorative booklet, “Those Seven Days: Lee Kuan Yew and Us”, which sold over 120,000 copies.

Complementing its "Refuel Towkay!" Weekly column on interviews with businessmen from micro, small and medium enterprises, WB ran a series of well-attended talks featuring professionals from different fields who shared their personal experience, professional insights, market trends and knowledge with readers.

Shin Min Daily News (SM) celebrated Singapore’s Golden Jubilee with special events to engage its 442,000-strong readership. These included the inaugural "Shin Min All Wheels Day" and the "Shin Min Graceful Living Workshop".

More than 85,000 copies of the "Master Hsing Yun – Words of Wisdom" books published by SM have been sold to date, making it one of the best-selling Chinese book series here. A pocket book edition of "Master Hsing Yun – Words of Wisdom 1" released on 19 August 2015, sold 30,000 copies within a week, further testifying to the enduring popularity of the series.

Marketing

The newspaper advertising business has been facing stiff challenges in recent years due to a double whammy of weak economic conditions and regulatory measures which have dampened consumer sentiments.

To bring better value to our advertisers, the Marketing Division came up with new print packages for our newspapers. This effort led to increased sales in our regular supplements and events which saw double-digit growth. We also introduced the first 8-page gatefold advertisement – the result of print innovation by our Production team.

The Integrated Sales team provided a suite of multimedia platforms for clients, while Print Classified offered multimedia solutions to smaller advertisers. For example, it helped property agents host their ads on digital outdoor screens as well as on the online property portal of our subsidiary company SRX. Its new Classified pages included more consumer-centric content and bigger font sizes for easier reading.

SPH’s signature car show - the Cars@Expo - grew its revenue from ads and booth sales from about $670,000 in 2014 to $1.68 million in 2015. This success led to an unprecedented second car show that will be held in November 2015.

Circulation

SPH's print circulation business continued to face unrelenting challenges from the popularity of digital offerings. With the growing presence of digital media permeating the newspaper industry, the Group enhanced its own efforts in the digital space with the aim of boosting its total print plus digital audience.

Total newspaper circulation, inclusive of both print and digital editions, ended FY2015 with 1,113,879 daily average copies, a robust year-on-year growth of 4.3 per cent, bolstered by increased demand among readers for our digital products.

ST and The Sunday Times registered a year-on-year growth of 4.9 per cent to 481,700 daily average circulation copies, with its paid digital edition ending the year at 177,400 copies, a growth of 18.6 per cent. ZB achieved a year-on-year growth of 2.5 per cent to 187,900 daily average copies, with paid digital edition at 39,300 copies, a growth of 18.0 per cent.

ST and ZB published special editions on the life and work of Singapore’s founding Prime Minister, Mr Lee Kuan Yew, on 23 May 2015. The special editions sold more than 150,000 copies each.

In order to meet readers’ demand for newspaper content, Circulation launched a series of localised subscription drives at more than 40 sites, covering public and private housing. The campaigns generated positive response, securing a total of 600 subscriptions.

The SPH Rewards programme, created to reward direct subscribers with a broad range of lifestyle promotions across different categories, garnered good response.

Amidst the tough retail environment, our retail convenience chain SPH Buzz maintained its network size of 78 outlets. The complete roll-out of its Point-of-Sale system has paved the way for more promotions and collaborations with partners. To cater to changing consumer buying habits, Buzz introduced parcel collection services for online purchases.
CEO’s Overview of Group Operations

Magazines
Like magazine publishers around the world, SPH Magazines has embarked on its digital transformation. Its 90 digital editions across five countries were built on the strong following of its established print editions which held leading positions in their respective genres. These tablet magazines re-captured the imagination of readers by re-defining and refreshing the magazine experience through videos and photo galleries.

Collectively, they amassed a new digital audience of more than 500,000 which became a premium inventory for advertisers to tap on. These networks, centered on key market segments in the region, leveraged SPH Magazines’ extensive brand portfolio to offer advertisers both breadth and depth in reaching their desired audiences.

Our marquee lifestyle brands - such as Her World, Female, Singapore Women's Weekly, Cleo, Harper's Bazaar, Men's Health, Home & Décor and Young Parents - continued to lead in the Nielsen Media Index’s readership numbers in their respective genres. As testament to their enduring appeal, several magazines celebrated their anniversaries this year. Most notably, Her World toasted its 55th anniversary with a year-long celebration in Singapore and Malaysia.

Luxury brands such as The Peak, Icon, Luxury Properties, China Boating, Jet Asia Pacific and luxury-insider.com were also lauded as authorities in luxury lifestyle on the back of a rapidly rising affluent segment in Asia Pacific. The Peak bagged the Luxury Media of the Year from the Media Publishers Association of Singapore.

The top-of-mind visibility of our magazine titles also extends to their online properties. According to Marketing Magazine’s Digital Media of the Year rankings, advertisers voted Men’s Health (www.menshealth.com.sg), women’s lifestyle network herworldPLUS (www.herworldplus.com) and HardwareZone (www.hardwarezone.com) as their top media platforms in the Men’s, Women’s and Tech categories respectively. These sites also consistently outdo their competitors, based on Comscore’s measurements of page views and unique visitors.

SPH Magazines’ Custom Publishing team clinched new contracts from sought-after clients such as Diageo Brands BV and Singapore International Foundation while winning international honours for existing clients. SilverKris, the SIA inflight magazine produced by the team, has won prestigious awards such as the Content Marketing Awards and APEX Awards, as well as the In-Flight Media of the Year at MPAS 2015.

Digital Media
The Group’s new Digital Division completed its first full financial year with 30 per cent growth in digital revenues. With a wide portfolio of digital products, the scale and value of the SPH Digital Network is a key value proposition to advertisers. It has improved personalisation of content and advertising to enhance the reader experience across the various sites and apps.

The advertising team is actively using programmatic sales channels to supplement on-ground sales efforts, strengthening its presence in automated marketplaces where digital agencies and advertisers are already spending portions of their advertising budgets.

Mobile is an integral platform for publishers to deliver content to its users. Straitstimes.com, Zaobao.com, Businesstimes.com and AsiaOne focused on delivering mobile friendly interfaces for readers navigating to the websites through their browsers, and improving the mobile apps for those who prefer a native mobile experience.

Stomp, the citizen journalism site, and omy.sg, the bilingual news and entertainment website, continued to garner a good following with their lively content. omy.sg’s annual Singapore Blog Awards attracted over 700 registrations and more than 10,000 unique voters over the campaign period, with 27 winners honoured.

Following the Group’s investment in property analytics company StreetSine in November 2014, it has successfully merged operations with STProperty, offering consumers and real estate professionals a one-stop shop for information on property-related transactions.

Complementing STJobs which targets the PMET space, it also launched a job search product targeting the non-executive space, FastJobs. A mobile app available on Android and iOS, the product secured 25 times growth in downloads in its first four months after the official launch.
Both STJobs and STProperty also organised career fairs, property expos and seminars throughout the year.

The STClassifieds team launched a mobile marketplace product, Trezo, which taps into a growing trend for consumers who prefer to buy and sell through their mobile devices.

2015 was a fruitful year for the sites operated by sgCarMart.com. It remained the leading car classifieds, delivering high levels of returns for advertisers. Its forum site, myCarForum.com, has the highest participation rate and traffic among all other Singapore car forums. STCars.sg recorded a double digit growth in traffic and is now the second highest traffic car classifieds in Singapore behind sgCarMart.com.

In January 2015, 701Search consolidated its regional online classifieds business by creating joint-venture companies in Indonesia and Thailand with South African-based Naspers. The 701Search Group, owned jointly by SPH and Norwegian media companies Schibsted and Telenor, operates the number 1 marketplace in Malaysia, Vietnam and Thailand. Silver Indonesia JVCo, the joint venture company set up by 701Search and Naspers, owns the online classifieds marketplace in Indonesia.

ShareInvestor (SI), a wholly-owned subsidiary of SPH, kept its position as market leader in investor relations services to listed companies and market data tools for investors in the region. SI’s flagship data products, SI WebPro and SI Station, were upgraded to include stock prices from Hong Kong, USA, Australia, Indonesia and Thailand. SI Malaysia had another profitable year with its market data business registering the highest-ever number of subscribers and record revenue through Bursa Station, a collaboration between SI and Bursa Malaysia Bhd. SI Thailand is also the market leader with 185 listed companies using its online investor relations services.

SI took a 60 per cent stake in Waterbrooks Pte Ltd, a public relations company in Singapore, and now offers an integrated offline and online investor relations service to listed companies. It also invested in a social media platform, InvestingNote, to reinforce its efforts to reach out to a younger community.

The ShareInvestor Academy organised more than 40 seminars and events this year. SI also organised the inaugural REIT Symposium (together with REITAS) which attracted 17 REIT companies. Its signature event, "INVEST Fair 2015", into its ninth year, also broke new ground with innovative ideas such as INVEST IDOL and the Singapore Powerlist.

SPH Data Services delivered another year of robust growth. The collaboration with FTSE Russell (FTSE) and Singapore Exchange (SGX) to jointly create, maintain, license and market the Straits Times Index (STI) and the FTSE ST Index series, has yielded good results. To ensure that the STI remains the best solution for market participants, a market consultation was carried out and it found wide support for a higher liquidity requirement for index stocks. The new STI liquidity rule and FTSE ST index series methodology change was implemented in September 2015.

2015 also saw enthusiasm for SG50 books. One highlight was “50 Things To Love About Singapore”, done by the ST newsroom, which sold over 10,000 copies. “Living The Singapore Story”, a contract publishing project for National Library Board put together by an ST team, also enjoyed brisk sales, as did “Front Page: Stories of Singapore” since 1845, produced under sponsorship with Bank of Singapore for ST’s 170th anniversary exhibition at the ArtScience Museum.

Other major book launches included “Be at the Table or Be on the Menu”, by Professor S Jayakumar, and “Chasing Rainbows” by Choo Lian Liang.

Focus Publishing expanded its stable of special interest Chinese magazine titles. Apart from its popular U-Weekly (UW) and Health No. 1 titles, it launched the quarterly UW Travel & Leisure magazine in April 2015 and a fashion, beauty and lifestyle mook (a magazine-book hybrid) titled Fabulous U, in August 2015. Focus Publishing also produced a range of community newsletters and books. ZbBz Arts, the monthly bilingual luxury magazine published by ZB, launched its second edition of ZbBz in June 2015, further strengthening ZbBz’s unique DNA of sophistication and intellectual appeal.

Book Publishing

Straits Times Press (STP), the Group’s book publishing arm, had a fruitful year with the publication of a series of books on founding Prime Minister Lee Kuan Yew following his death on 23 March 2015. Its top seller was “LKY: A Pictorial Memoir” — a compilation of pictures from Lee’s life and work, which sold about 40,000 copies.

Radio

SPH Radio grew from strength to strength in 2015. Kiss92 maintained its number 1 position in share of listeners and number 2 position in cumulative audience among English stations in Singapore. The station’s cumulative audience grew to 645,000 in the Nielsen’s Wave 1 survey of 2015. The other English station, HOT FM 91.3, was re-formatted and re-branded as ONE FM 91.3 to target male listeners above 30 years of age. ONE FM 91.3 achieved excellent cumulative audience of 243,000 in its first survey. The two biggest personalities in Singapore radio, Glenn Ong and The Flying Dutchman, have joined the station to helm the morning show.

UFM100.3, SPH Radio’s only Chinese language station, maintained its cumulative listenership of 330,000, based on the latest Nielsen’s Survey. It also had the longest “Time Spent Listening” among Chinese stations in Singapore, a reflection of the quality of its music and content.

Out-Of-Home Advertising

Our Out-of-Home (OOH) media advertising business unit, SPHMBO, grew its product line and contributed a steady revenue stream to the Group. Its annual revenue has increased by about 17 per cent year-on-year, despite higher operations costs and increased competition. The outlook for the OOH media industry is positive as advertiser demand for good OOH solutions remains strong.

SPHMBO secured exclusive marketing rights to new OOH advertising locations in the Central Business District and its fringes, such as One Raffles Quay, Marina Bay Link Mall and Bugis Village. It also successfully renewed its longstanding partnership with the proprietors of Chevron House, HDB Hub and Rendezvous Hotel. SPHMBO will continue to enjoy exclusive marketing rights to the OOH sites in these locations.

SPH Media Fund and MSA

The SPH Media Fund was set up in August 2014 with a S$100 million fund focusing on early stage investments in technology start-ups with a strong regional focus. In the last 12 months, its portfolio added investments in Chope, Crowdynews, Peatix and Smaato. It also launched the SPH Plug & Play accelerator in April 2015, in partnership with Silicon Valley-based Plug & Play and Infocomm Investments, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Infocomm Development Authority (IDA) of Singapore. It invested S$30,000 each in eight start-up companies operating across media sectors ranging from advertising, e-commerce, marketplaces, mobile, news and content distribution. The eight selected start-ups will be mentored by domain experts from the venture capital and media industries. The start-ups will also receive training and leverage on SPH’s vast intellectual property and resources.

The Group set up the Media Strategy and Analytics Division (MSA) in February 2014 with the aim of enhancing the company’s core media business. This involves harnessing existing core assets and strengths to grow media adjacencies and identifying possible new businesses in the media space, across multi platforms. On the analytics front, MSA has identified key objectives and collaborated with various operating divisions to carry out data projects.

Properties

Following their injection into SPH REIT on 24 July 2013, Paragon and The Clementi Mall have continued to deliver strong performance last year with 100 per cent committed occupancy. The Seletar Mall, a joint venture between SPH and United Engineers Developments, opened in November 2014. It currently enjoys 100 per cent occupancy with over 130 retail shops. The family-oriented suburban mall has already proven to be popular with residents staying in Sengkang, Hougang, Punggol, Seletar and Ang Mo Kio, catering to their convenience, lifestyle and dining needs. The mall is easily accessible as it is connected to the Fernvale LRT, linking to Sengkang North East Line MRT/LRT station and bus interchange.
CEO’s Overview of Group Operations

Events, Conferences and Exhibitions

The Group’s events and exhibitions subsidiary Sphere Exhibits (Sphere) expanded and grew its portfolio in Southeast Asia while maintaining its competitiveness in Singapore. It also launched several new shows and revamped the show content for recurring events:

- BuildTech Asia remained the flagship trade show as Sphere successfully held the fifth edition in Singapore. Into its second edition, BuildTech Yangon expanded 20 per cent with a show scale of 12,000 sqm, and attracted 150 exhibitors and more than 4,000 visitors.

- The inaugural Manufacturing Solutions Expo was set up as a one-stop platform to showcase the latest innovative technologies to the manufacturing fraternity.

- Franchising & Licensing Asia (FLAsia) grew by more than 20 per cent as more international brands used Singapore as a launch pad to market-test their products. South Korea and Malaysia also presented their largest pavilions in the history of FLAsia.

- Gifts, Stationery and Office (GSO) Fair was revamped to become the Singapore Gifts & Premiums Fair (SGPFair). In conjunction with this show, Sphere introduced two more shows, Office Expo Asia (OEA) and PrintPack+Sign (PP+S), which collectively more than doubled in scale on a year-on-year basis.

- Sphere Conferences yielded promising results with its varied conference topics in Myanmar spanning across hospitality & tourism, civil aviation, real estate, and banking & finance. It also entered new markets such as Sri Lanka and Indonesia. Together with BT, it launched the inaugural prestigious Asia Pacific CEO Congress in Singapore based on the theme “Leading Transformation” which attracted over 250 business leaders from various industry sectors in the region.

This year, Sphere became the majority shareholder of Beerfest Asia Pte Ltd, which organises the annual Beerfest Asia event. This latest investment was in line with Sphere’s commitment to expand its food and beverage verticals which include proprietary gourmet and food shows Asian Masters, Gourmet Japan, Gusto Italiano, World Food Fair and Food & Beverage Fair.

Sphere’s flagship technology events, COMEX and IT Show, remain popular with improvements of show content such as introducing pre-order sale on Facebook, trade-in facilities, and regular engagement with fans on social media platforms.

Business Outlook

Looking ahead, we will continue to invest in our print and digital assets as well as embark on new ventures to stay ahead of the latest developments in the increasingly fragmented media landscape. It is imperative that we remain vigilant to investment opportunities so as to grow the company.

We look forward to taking SPH to even greater heights with your unwavering support.

Investor Relations

It is our belief that our commitment to a high standard of corporate governance practices, together with a demonstrated performance track record, are instrumental to creating sustained value for stakeholders. Guided by the principles of transparency and accountability, our Investor Relations (IR) practices are designed and developed to facilitate engagement with stakeholders and to safeguard their interests, by maintaining regular, effective and fair communication through clear, consistent and timely updates.

With the above in mind, our IR programme comprises a full suite of IR activities every year to reinforce long-term relationship with stakeholders. Feedback and insights garnered are regularly reported to the Board of Directors, alongside updates on shareholder statistics and views from investors and analysts.

The investing community continues to recognise our IR effort. For the year under review, SPH was again named the winner of the ‘Most Transparent Company’ award at the Securities Investors Association (Singapore) ["SIAS"] Investors’ Choice Awards 2014. We are humbled by the trust accorded by the investing community and will strive to build on the rapport which we enjoy with investors.

Engaging the Investing Community

SPH’s senior management plays an active role in engaging the investing community, given the emphasis on the long-term strategic relationship with our investors. The company utilises multiple platforms to engage investors and provide them with an in-depth understanding of the group’s business performance, prospects and challenges.

To engage institutional investors effectively, SPH’s senior management participates in major investor conferences and events, including the Credit Suisse Asian Investment Conference in Hong Kong and Morgan Stanley Asia Pacific Summit in Singapore. In addition, senior management and IR team also address institutional investors on a regular basis via quarterly post-results investor luncheons, face-to-face meetings and conference calls.

Retail investors constitute another important aspect of our outreach effort. The company collaborates closely with external partners such as SIAS and SGX to address the collective need of retail investors. This includes participation in various public forums such as SIAS Corporate Profile Seminar, SGX quarterly conference, and the annual Invest Fair organised by Shareinvestor. In addition, the IR team also addresses the concerns of retail investors through email and telephone enquiries.

On this note, shareholders are encouraged to access our corporate website at www.sph.com.sg for the latest updates. Queries can also be posted via our Investor Relations email address, sphir@sph.com.sg.

Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity’s preparation of financial statements that give a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity’s internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements of the Group and the balance sheet of the Company are properly drawn up in accordance with the provisions of the Act and Singapore Financial Reporting Standards so as to give a true and fair view of the financial position of the Group and of the Company as at August 31, 2015 and the financial performance, changes in equity and cash flows of the Group for the year ended on that date.

Notice of Annual General Meeting
Singapore Press Holdings Limited
(Incorporated in the Republic of Singapore) Co Reg No. 198402868E

6. The effects of the resolutions under the heading “Special Business” in the Notice of the Thirty-First Annual General Meeting are:

(a) Ordinary Resolution No. 7(i) is to authorise the Directors of the Company from the date of that meeting until the next Annual General Meeting, subject to the provisions of the Newspaper and Printing Presses Act, Chapter 206, to issue shares in the capital of the Company and/or to make or grant instruments (such as warrants or debentures) convertible into shares, and to issue shares in pursuance of such instruments, up to a number not exceeding in total 50 per cent. of the total number of issued shares (excluding treasury shares) in the capital of the Company, of which up to 10 per cent. of the total number of issued shares (excluding treasury shares) in the capital of the Company may be issued other than on a pro rata basis to shareholders. For the purpose of determining the aggregate number of shares that may be issued, the percentage of issued shares shall be based on the total number of issued shares (excluding treasury shares) in the capital of the Company at the time that Ordinary Resolution No. 7(i) is passed, after adjusting for (i) new shares arising from the conversion or exercise of any convertible securities or share options or vesting of share awards which are outstanding or subsisting at the time that Ordinary Resolution No. 7(i) is passed, and (ii) any subsequent bonus issue, consolidation or subdivision of shares. For the avoidance of doubt, any consolidation or subdivision of shares in the capital of the Company will require shareholders’ approval.

(b) Ordinary Resolution No. 7(ii) is to empower the Directors to offer and grant awards, and to allot and issue new ordinary shares in the capital of the Company, pursuant to the SPH Performance Share Plan (which was approved by shareholders at the Extraordinary General Meeting held on 5 December 2006), provided that the aggregate number of new ordinary shares allotted and issued and/or to be allotted and issued, when aggregated with the existing ordinary shares (including ordinary shares held in treasury) delivered and/or to be delivered, pursuant to the Singapore Press Holdings Group (1999) Share Option Scheme and the SPH Performance Share Plan, shall not exceed 5 per cent. of the total number of issued ordinary shares in the capital of the Company (excluding ordinary shares held in treasury) from time to time. Although the Rules of the SPH Performance Share Plan provide for a higher limit of 10 per cent. for new shares which may be issued under the Singapore Press Holdings Group (1999) Share Option Scheme and the SPH Performance Share Plan, Ordinary Resolution 7(ii) provides for a lower limit of 5 per cent., as the Company does not anticipate that it will require a higher limit before the next Annual General Meeting.

(c) Ordinary Resolution No. 7(iii) is to renew the mandate to permit the Company to purchase or acquire issued ordinary shares in the capital of the Company on the terms and subject to the conditions of the Resolution.

The Company may use internal sources of funds, or a combination of internal resources and external borrowings, to finance the purchase or acquisition of its ordinary shares. The amount of funding required for the Company to purchase or acquire its ordinary shares, and the impact on the Company’s financial position, cannot be ascertained as at the date of this Notice as these will depend on the number of ordinary shares purchased or acquired and the price at which such ordinary shares were purchased or acquired and whether the ordinary shares purchased or acquired are held in treasury or cancelled.

The financial effects of the purchase or acquisition of such ordinary shares by the Company pursuant to the proposed Share Buy Back Mandate on the audited financial statements of the Company and the Group for the financial year ended August 31, 2015, based on certain assumptions, are set out in paragraph 2.6 of the Letter to Shareholders dated October 30, 2015, which is enclosed together with the Summary Financial Report.

* Details of the Director’s current directorships in other listed companies and other principal commitments are set out on pages 14 to 17 of the Summary Financial Report.
